

HOLMES COMMUNITY COLLEGE
WORKFORCE DEVELOPMENT

Register:

Contact: Earline Smith

Email: esmith@holmescc.edu

Web: www.holmescc.edu/workforce

Fall 2017

Goodman Campus

Goodman Campus

Computers for Beginners Cost: FREE Date: Wednesdays, Sept.13-Oct.11,2017 Time: 6:00pm-8:00pm - 10 hours Instructor: James Thompson	During this workshop participants will learn about hardware and software, files and folders, Window components such as media player, flash drives, different ports and cleaning up the system. Beginning with a short introduction of the history of computers, trainees will follow with learning about computers, and conclude with things to consider before e-mailing.
Electrical Lineman Program Cost: $1,500.00 Dates: Monday-Friday, beginning August 1-November 16, 2017-640 hours Instructors: Clarence McBride/Lamar Dumas	The Electrical Lineman Program consists of 16 weeks, hands on training. Upon completion of this course, the graduates are qualified to make connections of meter loops, transformers, and other equipment on de-energized poles; safely operate bucket trucks, digger derrick trucks, forklifts, check voltage and amperes; and recognize electrical hazards
GMAW 30 hours- Workforce Cost: $125.00 Dates: Tuesdays/Thursdays, September 2017 Time: 6:00pm-9:00pm-30 hours Instructor: Ben Lewis	GMAW, commonly known as MIG welding, is an extremely versatile process for joining metal. For those looking for a comprehensive training program in MIG welding, this class features a combination of lecture and hands-on practice. Our facility has welding stations with MIG welding machines and a well-ventilated workspace for project layout and class collaboration. This class is designed for beginners and those who want to take their skills to the next level. Upon completion, students will be familiar with safety, equipment, equipment set up and proper welding techniques.

Certified Nursing Assistant Cost: $400.00- tuition $105.00 – Occupational Testing Fees *cost does not include books and supplies Dates: Mondays/Wednesdays, beginning August 23-October 26, 2017 Time: 6:00pm-9:30pm-80 hours Instructor: Sarita Jackson, DNP, MSN	This certificate program provides Nursing Assistant students with knowledge and skills for entry-level positions in a nursing career. The curriculum of this program emphasizes patient safety, infection control, and the role of the certified nurse assistant in a health care team. Students will acquire the necessary level of education, training, skills, and knowledge to qualify for Mississippi Department of Public Health certification exam and to obtain employment as nurse assistants after becoming certified. This program is approved by Mississippi Department of Public Health.